Amount of variance explained by each component selected through a PCA over the celerity data